

Warm Beach Camp's RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. REGISTRATION

- The group leader agrees to check in with a Guest Services Host upon arrival.
- The group leader agrees to provide Warm Beach Camp accurate attendance records, including a registration list with the name, address, and phone number of each conferee by the close of the event.

2. FACILITY CARE

- The group leader agrees to leave the facilities in an orderly condition.
- The group is financially liable for any damages by its group members, except damage arising from normal wear. A facility inspection may be included as part of the financial settlement at the end of the event.

3. FOOD SERVICE

- Meal hours are: Breakfast 8:00 a.m.: Lunch 12:00 Noon; Dinner 5:30 p.m.; Sunday Noon Dinner 12:30 p.m. From September 1 to June 24, Friday Dinners are served at 7:00 p.m. Any change of meal time must be requested and approved before the contract is finalized.
- If the group is using W-Bar-B or Chinook Village, the group leader agrees to provide volunteers (3-5 people) to help serve and clean up at each meal.
- Warm Beach Camp will host all meals, unless prior arrangements are made.
- Shoes and shirts are required in the dining rooms as prescribed by the health code.
- No food or dinnerware will be taken from the dining room.
- Menus are developed by Warm Beach Camp. Limited alternatives may be available for special diets, if arrangements are made 21 days in advance of the event.

4. CAMP REGULATIONS

- Smoking is permitted outside the buildings only.
- Alcoholic beverages are not allowed on the grounds.
- Social dancing, with the exception of square or ethnic dancing, is not permitted on the grounds.
- Pets are not allowed on the grounds, either in Warm Beach housing or the RV area.
- For the comfort of our guests, quiet hours begin at 11:00 p.m.
- Fireworks, firearms, knives, and other weapons are not allowed on the grounds.

5. STAFFING AND SUPERVISION

- The group agrees to provide the necessary staff to safely operate the program, such as Camp Director, registrar, counselors, recreational director, and nurse.
(Note: The group is responsible for its own first aid and first aid supplies)
- Warm Beach Camp will provide the necessary staff to safely deliver the services agreed upon in the contract, such as Food Service staff, Accommodations staff, Lifeguards, Wranglers.
- The group will provide adult supervision of at least 1 per 10 campers in any facility in which youth (through high school age) are assigned.

6. INSURANCE COVERAGE

- If a guest should experience an accidental injury and require First Aid or medical treatment by a physician, their personal medical insurance company is to be used as the primary coverage.
- In the event of an accidental injury, the incident is to be reported to Warm Beach Camp by completing an Incident Report Form and turning it in to the Camp Host. The necessary forms will be furnished by the Guest Service Host at check in time.
- The group must provide Warm Beach Camp with a Certificate of Liability Insurance in which Warm Beach Christian Camps and Conference Center is named as an additional insured.
- The group agrees to indemnify, hold harmless, and assume full financial responsibility for the cost of defending and satisfying any claims against Warm Beach Camp or its employees, volunteers, and agents, arising from the Group's use of Warm Beach Camp or its property, facilities, or equipment.

7. SALES OF TAPES, BOOKS, AND OTHER ITEMS

- Sale of tapes, books, supplies or any other material by those attending Warm Beach Camp is allowed only with permission from Warm Beach Camp.
- The bookstore has a variety of materials for sale and will provide for the sale of materials requested by the group, if possible.

8. MISCELLANEOUS

- Warm Beach Camp recommends that campers wear safety equipment appropriate to activities that are participated in while on the campgrounds.
- Warm Beach Camp will not be responsible for publicity and information about guest group conferences.
- The group leader agrees to provide Warm Beach Camp with copies of all publicity when it is distributed and to submit a detailed schedule of the conference 10 days in advance of the event.
- The group agrees that a Warm Beach Camp representative may, at one of the group's general meetings, bring greetings, present the ministry and mission of Warm Beach Camp, and give instructions regarding the use of the grounds.
- Meeting rooms will be assigned by Warm Beach Camp in order to best meet the needs of all groups who may be using the grounds at the same time. Meeting rooms are assigned 45 days in advance of the event.
- While Warm Beach Camp assumes no responsibility for Lost & Found items, we do hold some Lost & Found items for up to two weeks after an event.
